THE

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

AND THE

BALTIMORE ADVERTISER.

The following is the QUINTESSENCE, viz.

I. That this paper ſhall be printed with a new and well founded type, and a paper in ſize and quality equal to the Pennſylvania Gazette.

II. That it ſhall publiſhed every Wedneſday morning, and with early care and the utmoſt fidelity, be delivered on that morning, to the ſubſcribers in the city and liberties, and to the diſtant places on the continent, by the earlieſt and moſt expeditious conveyance of land and water, poſt or carriage.

III. That the firſt Number ſhall be publiſhed, when I find upon the roll one thouſand ſubſcribers, which is the ſmalleſt number that can poſſibly ſupport this undertaking.

IV. That every ſubſcriber, on the delivery of the firſt Number, will pay Five Shillings, and at their tranſcription of fifty-two Numbers Five Shillings, and for every year after, Ten Shillings, per year.

V. That Advertiſements of a moderate length, ſhall be inſerted three times in this paper for FIVE SHILLINGS, and will be ranged without partiality as they come to hand;—the greateſt correctneſs ſhall be adhered to.

AS the public vehicles, for the expeditious conveyance of novel entertainments are ſo numerous, and as thoſe vehicles receive ſo much merit and encouragement from the judicious public, it emboldens the Subſcriber, humbly to offer this neceſſary and impartial PROCLAIMER of uſeful Knowledge and accumulating induſtry, to the Inhabitants of MARYLAND in particular, and to the Britiſh Colonies in general, from whom, he diffidently preſumes, on account of his candour and aſſiduity, to receive that protection and encouragement which always has been extended towards literary productions throughout the colonies of North America.—Nothing can be more acceptable or ſatisfactory to ourſelves, than a brief unfalſified account of preſent tranſactions, nor can any thing be more grateful and entertaining to poſterity, than an expreſſive certainty, and undoubted knowledge of times long paſt, and the glorious ſtruggles of their illuſtrious progenitors annalized as the fates of the antient Romans who maintained their Freedom with their Lives, and graſped at Liberty though Kings oppoſed them, who plucked Laurels from the Heads of Sycophants, to ſhade the Temples of their noble Patriots: —With what internal Satisfaction do we review the Roman Efforts, for their Liberty! How do we lament the Fate of Cato, and admire both the Character of the Patriot and the Magnanimity of the Hero.—— This Thought, ought to invigorate every Undertaker, to ſupport Honeſty, to apply the minuteſt Scintilla of Wiſdom, for the Defence of Science, to dedicate all Zeal and Aſſiduity, to the Benefit of his Country, and to eſtabliſh his GAZETTE, on the ſubſtantial Baſis of the ſtricteſt Veracity. Of theſe eſſential Particulars, the Subſcriber is thoroughly convinced, and humbly offers the Public his ſtrongeſt Abilities in their Service, and relies on that Generoſity for the Support of his Paper, which has always been the Characteriſtic of a true American.

NEW-YORK.

In the General Aſſembly of this colony, on the 16th ult.

A motion was made by Col. Schuyler, in the words following, viz.

Mr. Speaker,

I Move that a certain letter, dated, Hartford, June 4, 1774. directed, Honourable John Cruger, Eſq; James De Lancey, James Jauncey, &c. Eſqrs, committee of correſpondence, New York; and ſubſcribed Silas Deane, in behalf of and per order of the committee of correſpondence Connecticut. And alſo a certain letter incloſed within the foregoing, dated, Hartford, June 3, 1774; together with the copy of a letter dated New York, June 24 1774, directed to the committee of correſpondence of the colony of Connecticut, and ſubſcribed by John Cruger, James Jauncey, Frederick Philips, James De Lancey, Jacob Walton, Simon Boerum, John Rapalje, Daniel Kiſſam, Zebulon Williams, late Zebulon Seaman, Benjamin Seaman. And alſo a letter from the committee of correſpondence appointed by this houſe, dated September 5, 1774, to Edmund Burke, Eſq; agent of this colony at the court of Great Britain; be forthwith entered on the journals of this houſe; and that the clerk of this houſe be ordered to deliver copies of the ſame to the printer of this colony that they may be by him inſerted in the public news papers.

And debates ariſing upon the ſaid motion, and the queſtion being put thereon, it was carried in the negative, in the manner following, viz.

For the Negative Mr. Walton, Col. Seaman, Mr. Billopp, Mr. Bruſh, Col. Philips, Mr. Kiſſam, Mr. Van Kleeck, Mr. Ten Eyck, Mr. Wilkins, Mr. Jauncey, Mr. De Lancey, Col. Wells. Mr. Nicoll, Mr. Rapalje, Mr. Brinckerhoff, Mr. Gale.

For the Affirmative. Mr. Thomas, Mr. Clinton, Mr. Van Cortlandt, Col. Ten Broeck, Col. Woodhull, Col. Schuyler, Mr. De Witt, Col. Livingſton, Capt. Seaman.

[Since the foregoing, authentic copies of the three letters firſt above mentioned, have come to hand, and are as follow, viz.]

Hartford, June 3d, 1774.

Gentlemen,

MR. Revere, on his return, acquainted us with the purport of yours, by him, to the Committee at Boſton, which being agreeable to our ſentiments, and ſimilar to what we had previouſly wrote them on the ſubject;—we take liberty to incloſe you a copy of ours to them, of this date, and aſk your conſideration of the propoſal, and your ſentiments of the meaſure, as ſoon as conveniently they may be had;—we have wrote to the ſame purport, to the Committees of the Colonies of Rhode Iſland, and New-Hampſhire; and are, with great truth and eſteem, Gentlemen, yours, &c.

P. S. The reſolves of our lower Houſe of Aſſembly are incloſed, in addition to which they gave us in command, to recommend a Congreſs, and to join therein.

Hartford, June 3d, 1774.

Gentlemen,

THE lower Houſe of Aſſembly, at their Seſſion at this place, which cloſes this day, came into ſundry reſolutions, relative to their rights and privileges, a copy of which you have incloſed, and on the important ſubject take liberty to add, as our opinion, that a Congreſs is abſolutely neceſſary, previous to almoſt every other meaſure, ſince, as the injury is general, the mode taken for redreſs ought to be commenſurate, which is not probable to be obtained, ſhort of a general conference and union.——The reſolves of merchants of any individual town, or province, however generouſly deſigned muſt be partial when conſidered in reſpect to the whole Colonies in one general view;—while, on the other hand, every meaſure recommended, every reſolve come into by the whole united colonies, muſt carry weight and influence with it on the mind of the people, and tend effectually to ſilence thoſe baſe inſinuations, which our enemies are ever ready to throw out, of intereſted motives, ſiniſter views, unfair practices, and the like, for the vile purpoſes of ſowing the ſeeds of jealouſy between the Colonies, to divide and render abortive all our deſigns, in favour of the liberties of America, —We conceive little or nothing need be added on the ſubject, the propriety and utility of which, ſeems to be univerſally acknowledged,—the time and place muſt be fixed;—for the firſt, the earlier, conſiſtent with having the principal provinces notified and preſent, the better,—ſay, the laſt week of July, or firſt in Auguſt, by which time all, as far as Virginia, may be informed of, and invited to attend it,—For the place, New York is near the centre, but the ſeaſon of the year make us prefer ſome agreeable country town to a city, in which there will neceſſarily be more avocations, beſides its being diſagreeable in theſe months.—Norwalk, or Fairfield are towns in which gentlemen may be well accommodated in this colony;—but we ſubmit this, as well as the time, to the opinion of the other colonies, to whom we ſhall write, and expect their anſwer will be in ſeaſon—We conceive as Committees of Correſpondence and inquiry are appointed in every conſiderable Colony, by their Aſſemblies, they are the proper perſons to attend, or to appoint others for that buſineſs.—But of this you are to judge, and we hint it, as the Aſſemblies of ſome of the Colonies, will probably not have an opportunity of meeting again, till next winter, and conſequently will not be able to appoint in any ſeaſon—We have only to add, that ſenſibly affected with your diſtreſſed ſituation.——We are, gentlemen, with great reſpect, your obedient ſervants.

By order, and in behalf of the Committee of Correſpondence for Connecticut.

SILAS DEANE.

To the Committee of Correſpondence for Boſton. }

A true Copy.

P. S. Yours of the 31ſt ult. in anſwer to ours of the 26th is before us—The ſituation of the town of Boſton, particularly of the poor, and ſuch as muſt now be deprived of employ, and reduced to ſtraits, was conſidered by both Houſes of Aſſembly, and a reſolution come into to contribute to their relief, which paſſed both Houſes:—But, the time and mode of carrying it into execution, is deferr'd, until they hear more directly from you, which doubtleſs they will, before their next meeting.

New-York, June 24, 1774.

Gentlemen,

WE have your letter of 4th before us, incloſing the reſolves of your aſſembly, and a letter to the committee of correſpondence at Boſton, and we agree with you that at this alarming juncture, a general Congreſs of deputies from the ſeveral colonies, would be a very expedient and ſalutary meaſure; ſuch a Congreſs, conſiſting of men of coolneſs, prudence and underſtanding, would, we conceive, be the beſt means under providence, of reſtoring that peace and harmony between Great Britain and her colonies, which is the ſureſt foundation of happineſs to both, and which every good man, every well wiſher to his country, ought to labour ſtrenuouſly to eſtabliſh,—We are ſorry therefore that we are not ſufficiently empowered to take any ſteps in relation to ſo ſalutary a meaſure; for we are a committee of correſpondence only, and cannot conſiſtently with good order and propriety, interfere in a matter of ſuch importance, without the appointment and concurrence of our whole houſe of repreſentatives; after what has been ſaid, it would be needleſs to mention any thing about the places of meeting, only this, that if the other colonies, who may have authority for ſo doing, ſhould meet in Congreſs, in, or near this city, We ſhall moſt gladly and willingly, aſſiſt with our advice &c. if neceſſary, which, circumſtanced as we are at preſent, is all we are enabled to do.

We ſhould be glad however to know, before we come to any final determination on this matter, what ſteps will be taken by the other colonies, who are in the ſame ſituation with us, by not having an opportunity of knowing the ſentiments of their houſes of repreſentatives; when the meaſures propoſed to be adopted by them, ſhall be communicated to us, we ſhall be better able to judge what plan will be moſt likely to procure a redreſs of our preſent grievances, and promote the union and proſperity, of the mother country and the colonies; and we expect daily to receive accounts of theſe matters, of which we ſhall ſend you the moſt early intelligence, we are with great reſpect,

Gentlemen,

Your moſt obedient ſervants,

John Cruger, Fred. Phillips, Benj Seaman, Jas Jauncey, James De Lancey, Jacob Walton, S. Boerum, Daniel Kiſſam, Zeb. Williams, late Zeb. Seaman, John Rapalje.

To the PRINTER.

IN Mr. Rivington's paper of the 19th of January I obſerved a few lines, to which the names of John Sheals, and a number of others, were affixed as ſubſcribers, informing the public that they were no way concerned in the reſolves, ſign'd by Jacob Blackwell chairman, which had lately been publiſhed in the New-York Journal, as the proceedings of the townſhip of Newtown, in approving the Conduct of the Continental Congreſs, chooſing a committee, and otherways conforming to the recommendations of that honourable body; and alſo that they (the Captain (Sheals) and his company,) 'acknowledged no repreſentatives, but the 'members of the General Aſſembly of the pro-'vince of New York.'

From this publication, perſons unacquainted with the affair, would be led to believe, that there had been ſome unfair or irregular proceedings, in obtaining the reſolves, appointing a committee &c. (as publiſhed in the Journal) and that the townſhip had not ſufficient notice or opportunity to conſider, and declare their ſentiments.

But in truth, nothing of all this could be objected—the Superviſor appointed the meeting on repeated ſolicitations of the committee of New York; the townſhip had ſufficient notice of the meeting, and the deſign of it, 10 days before the time, and ſcarce a perſon qualified to vote, was unacquainted with the time and buſineſs of the meeting. On the day appointed, the people aſſembled, and the meeting was at leaſt as full, as ever had been known in the place. The buſineſs was regularly and deliberately opened, and every ſtep and reſolution, duly weighed and conſidered; nor was there a dissenting voice to any part of the proceeding, except that of Mr. Nathan. Moore, who held up his hand against the whole of it, but gave no reason for his dissent, nor was he seconded by any person.

This fair and open proceeding, the fullness of the meeting and the unanimity of sentiments in all their resolutions, for some days excluded all cavil or objection: But at last, a few persons, influenced by motives invisible to common eyes, became assiduous in counteracting the patriotic designs of their townsmen, and promoting the tyrannical measures of the enemies of their country, to reduce it to slavery, and destroy that glorious constitution, which it has been the work of ages to form, which raised England from obscurity, was the Englishman's greatest boast, and the badge of distinction between him and all the nations of the earth, who groan in hopeless slavery, without spirit to attempt to break their chains.

Whether Capt. Sheals and his company, were so weak as to believe they were really doing their country service by their conduct in this affair, or whether they were among the conspirators, to betray it into slavery, I shall not pretend to say—But the man must be weak indeed that supposes base and unfair actions can be necessary, or can be used with propriety to support a good cause. —We are told in scripture, not to do evil that good may come.

I am informed by several of the signers themselves, they were deceived, and by various pretences drawn in to subscribe their names to the paper with Capt. Sheals. Many of the signers are not freeholders, (among which number is Sheals himself) many others are poor ignorant people, who scarce had an idea of political propriety, Some were asked if they were for the King or against him, and if for him, then that it was necessary to sign, else that they would be held as rebels, be hanged, and their estates confiscated; others again were told that their signing was only to procure a petition from the general assembly to the King, for the redress of grievances—Some were made to believe, that the estates of those who did not sign would be confiscated, and given to those that did sign and oppose them, and some were even told, that their signing was in favour of the congress, and that those town and county meetings and committees, were set up in opposition to it—Some indeed, of more knowledge and more respectable characters, were persuaded to sign, by mere dint of importunity, to oblige some particular friend or acquaintance, and to shew respect to government (by which name they had the assurance to call the measures of the ministry to destroy the English constitution)——Many well meaning, and even some sensible men, were drawn in by these and other artifices, to sign and side with the ministerial tools and enemies of their country; who, under the pretence of supporting Government, pursued measures directly tending to destroy it, and that venerable constitution on which it is founded. They did indeed, as far as it suited their scheme, retain, and pretend a mighty veneration for the Forms of government, while they used those very forms to destroy the substance of it, and establish tyranny and arbitrary power in its stead.—The forms are in reality of no value, but as they tend to the convenient administration of justice; they were become venerable on account of the use to which they had long been applied, but are capable of being applied to quite opposite purposes; they were therefore retained, that the prejudice in their favour, might be converted to the establishment of a contrary system of government, (or rather tyranny) and to the destruction of that constitution, under which they received their existence.

But these signers, and every opposer or seeming opposer to the measures recommended by the venerable Congress lately held at Philadelphia;—the most respectable and august body America ever knew!—will soon be sensible of the impropriety, the infamy of their conduct—They will only distinguish themselves as enemies to their country,—to their King,—to the English constitution,—to the British nation,—to the rights of humanity.—They will mark themselves as voluntary slaves,—and while the rest of the nation are,—and will be free—they alone merit slavery, and ought to have their reward—They have laboured hard for it,—they have signed their consent to it with their own hands.

A FREEMAN of NEWTOWN.

To the PUBLIC.

"A Citizen of New York," has attempted, in Mr. Gaine's last paper, to sow the seeds of discord among us, and interrupt our union and harmony. Those who read his performance attentively, will easily see his design, but cursory and less intelligent readers may be deceived by him: To prevent this, I will make a few remarks upon his curious publication.

As soon as he has finished his introduction (which consists of nothing more than common place phrases, and trite expressions) he begins to abuse our virtuous and patriotic committee, and in the most villainous manner represents them as having done what they never did, and I dare say, never thought of. He says, "a summons has been issued last Thursday, by the chairman, and by order, of the committee, commanding your attendance at the Exchange, on Monday the 6th instant, for the purpose of chusing delegates to go to the next Continental Congress." Is this true? It is not;—it is a wilful misrepresentation. Examine the committee's advertisement;—"they request that the freeholders [&c.] will be pleased to assemble ——to signify their sense of the best method of choosing delegates, and whether they will appoint a certain number of persons, to meet such deputies as the counties may elect for that purpose, and join with them in appointing delegates, out of their body, for the next Congress." Can any thing be more modest? Can words express a greater deference to the opinion of the public? or could the counties be treated in a more respectful manner? There is no such thing as "commanding your attendance," nor was it the design of the meeting "actually to choose" delegates, as plainly appears from the committees advertisement. It is true you were "not called to deliberate on the expediency and propriety of appointing delegates," but the reason for this was—not an overbearing disposition in the committee, but because the "expediency and propriety" of the measure was allowed on all hands; even those who met at Montagnie's, where Mr. John Thurman was chairman, did not deny either of them, but implicitly agreed to both, and only proposed trying to get "the meeting of Monday next postponed until the 20th of April." So you see the artful falsehood used by this same Mr. Citizen

The arguments drawn from the conduct of our Assembly, are futile and ridiculous. What have they done about the matter? They have determined "not to take into consideration the proceedings of the Continental Congress held in the city of Philadelphia in the months of September and October last,"—and that the sense of the house should "not be taken on the necessity of appointing delegates for this colony, to meet the delegates for the other colonies on this continent, in general Congress, on the 10th day of May next." If I understand English, this is nothing more than if the honourable house had said, These are matters with which we do not choose to have any connection, and therefore shall neither censure nor applaud, but leave it entirely to our constituents to act as they think proper; if they choose to approve the proceedings of the Congress, and adhere to their determinations, let them do it; if not, let them disapprove of them, and signify their approbation or disapprobation in their own way. This seems to me the most natural construction of the conduct of the honourable house,—and that of some of the members yesterday appears to justify this construction: for a number of them attended the meeting at the Exchange, and to suppose they would encourage by their presence a meeting which was (as the citizen is pleased to call it) "an open violation of their just authority, and a glaring insult on them," contains such a reflection on the good sense of those gentlemen, and the propriety of their conduct, as I do not choose to make, and think ought not to be made by any person whatever. It appears then very plain, that the citizen must have entirely mistaken the matter, or wilfully misrepresented it, that he might be furnished with weighty arguments against the meeting. From his perversion of the committee's advertisement, I strongly suspect the latter was the case, but it is not right to use our firm attachment to our constitutional legislature as an instrument to deceive us:—Fie! Mr. Citizen, that is a low-lived trick.——

The remainder of the Citizen's address is such an incoherent confusion of provincial Congress—republicanism—constitutional assemblies—militia—legal authority—cockatrices—embryos—&c. that I am apt to think the man was non compos mentis when he wrote it, and I shall not attempt to answer it, lest the public should think that I am mad too.—

You see, my friends, what arts are used to support a faction,—be on your guard;—you acted yesterday in a manner worthy of yourselves;—continue to act on all future occasions with the same order, decency, unanimity and firmness,—you will thereby confound the friends of despotism, convince them your attachment to "the best of Kings" and constitutional government, is inviolable, and will preserve your own liberty and that of your posterity 'till time shall be no more.

ANOTHER CITIZEN.

March 7th, 1775.

BOSTON, February 28.

Last Sunday an attempt was made by a regiment of the Kings troops, under Col. Leslie, to seize some brass cannon, which the General had heard was deposited at or near Salem. The troops were sent in a transport, concealed between decks, to Marblehead, where they remained till the people being gone to attend divine service, the troops, with bayonets fixed, suddenly landed and marched for Salem—in quest of the cannon, till they came to a bridge, where they were detained an hour and an half, and were likely to come to blows; but on a promise of the Col. that if permitted to pass the bridge, he would presently return, he was suffered to pass, and after marching a small distance, according to his promise, returned, immediately reimbarked and proceeded for Boston, without the booty he came in quest of.

The country all round, on the alarm, immediately armed, and in great numbers were proceeding to Salem, where many of them arrived soon after the King's forces had quitted the place.

NEW-LONDON, March 3.

We hear, that at a Town Meeting held in New Haven, on Tuesday last, it was unanimously voted, That no Person in Town should entertain the Deputies who were expected from the Towns of Ridgfield and Newtown; to attend the General Assembly which is now sitting at New Haven.

NEW PORT, February 27.

Extract of a letter from Boston.

The inhabitants of Quebec have done worthily, by sending home three delegates consisting of French and English, with a remonstrance against the arbitrary conduct exercised toward them and us.

The trade of this colony is greatly infested by those whose protection and honour, one would imagine, would make them contemn the character of custom house pimps.

NEW YORK, March 9.

Capt. Thomas Cunningham, of the schooner Hope, lately from Cape Nichola Mole, informs, that being in distress, having lost his main and both topmasts, his boat, one man, and every thing off the deck, on the 13th of December last, he put into that place, when there were then lying above 70 sail of English vessels from the different British colonies, none of which would give him the least assistance, because he belonged to New York, which they all considered as having deserted the public cause, in not adopting the measures recommended by the congress. That in this distress he lay 14 days without a boat or any assistance, till 2 Captains of vessels belonging to New-London, from personal acquaintance, generously gave him the necessary Relief, but often expressed the highest resentment against New York, for deserting the other colonies in the common cause. Capt. Cunningham farther says, that tho' there were many boats to be sold among the vessels, he could by no means procure one of them, tho' in the greatest want; and several vessels which were intended for New York, thro' resentment had altered their voyage.

The Governor of Jamaica says, in a speech made to the assembly of that Island, when he prorogued them, "the provident attention you have given to the interest of this county, and the harmony with which you have conducted the business of the session, reflects the greatest honour upon yourselves, and must be productive of the best consequences. You have lightened my burden and made me look cheerfully forward to the cares of government."——

To be SOLD,

A Valuable tract of land, lying in the township of Knowlton, in the county of Sussex and province of New Jersey, containing 1146 acres, being part of a tract of 1548 acres, conveyed by Samuel and James Bayard, to John Finch, Esq; of Great Britain, of which 202 acres have been sold, to Archibald Stinson, who now lives thereon; and 200 acres to John Blair, now occupied by two tenants——There are five improved farms on this tract—the soil is fertile and excellent for wheat and other grain—considerable part of the tract is well timber'd, and a sufficient quantity of it is meadow land—It lies contiguous to a convenient landing on the river Delaware, from whence all produce is readily conveyed to Philadelphia, and wheat at the reasonable price of six pence per bushel.—Its vicinity to the flourishing Moravian settlements, on Beaver Rivers, which affords a market for all its produce, the rapid settlement made in Sussex county, and in the neighbourhood of this tract, within a few years past, and the improvements already made thereon, must necessarily make it the more desirable.

If a purchaser of the whole tract should not appear before May next, it will then be run into convenient lots for farms of about 200 acres each—Good bonds will be taken for the whole, or part of the purchase money, as may suit the purchaser.

For terms, and further particulars, apply to the Rev. Mr. Ogden, at Newtown, in said county of Sussex, to Lewis Ogden, Esq; Attorney at Law, in Newark; or to the subscriber in New-York, who will give a good title for the said lands.

THOMAS BRIDGEN ATTWOOD.
New York, March 8 1775. 79 82

THIS is to give notice, that the subscriber intends to ride post from this place to New-York, and return here as usual, on every Tuesday afternoon;—he also proposes to erect a complete and commodious Stage Waggon, to go from his own house in Hanover, and call at the house of Joseph Morris, to the house of Thomas Kenney, Esq. and from thence set off at five o'clock, on every Tuesday morning, commencing the first Tuesday in May next, and proceed the same day to Powles Hook, calling at the following places, viz. at the house of Silvanus Cicly, and Matthias Winius, at Passiack River; at the house of Nehemiah Woodruff, at Springfield; at the house of Josiah Pearson, in Newark, and from thence proceed to Powles Hook:—From which last place said Stage will set off on its return at five o'clock every Thursday morning, and come through Newark, Springfield, and Passiack, (without calling at Hanover) to this place on the afternoon of said day:—As the Stage must set off early to perform this journey timely, the passengers are requested to come over the river on Wednesday evening. The rate for each passenger, from this place to Powles Hook, will be four shillings New-York currency, and the like sum for each returning passenger, and so in proportion for those taken in along the road, bundles, &c. belonging to passengers, and not exceeding fourteen pounds weight will be carried free. The public may depend that the subscriber will use his utmost diligence and care to render satisfaction to every person that will encourage him in this undertaking. And as he flatters himself that he has given satisfaction to the gentlemen that have employed him for some years past in riding post from this place to New York, he requests the continuance of their favours, assuring them that he will faithfully exert himself to merit their future appprobation. CONSTANT COOPER.
Morris-Town, 4th March, 1775.

THE Co-partnership of Abeel and Byvanck, having expired the first of September last, and numbers of persons whose accounts have been long due, neglecting to settle the same, they in this public manner, request all persons indebted to them, without delay to discharge their accounts, and those who have any demands on said partnership, to call and receive their money—a general assortment of ironmongery and cutlery may be had at their late store, now continued by Garret Abeel, also at the house formerly occupied by Ald. Brinckerhoff, but now by Evert Byvanck, jun. both near Coenties Market. 78 82

Four Pounds Reward.

RUN away from the subscriber, living in East Chester, on the 6th instant, a Negro man named Robin, about 5 feet 7 inches high, a well set fellow, of a yellow complexion, part Indian, a great bushy head of hair, somewhat different from a Negro, speaks good English, and can speak Dutch, no particular mark, if he can get liquor is apt to get drunk; it is imagined he has got a pass, being very intimate with a Negro fellow, who can write, had on a felt hat half worn, a blue duffil great coat, a tann coloured over jacket, and an under one, frize, a buck skin pair of breeches, took along with him two pair of black woollen stockings, and two pair of shoes; it is imagined he has directed his course toward the North River, to get over among the Indians, he lived at the Fish Kill, on Phillips's Manor, and on York Island. Whosoever takes up and secures the said Negro fellow, so that his master may have him again, (in any of his Majesty's goals) shall have the above reward, if taken in this county, (five pounds, if taken in any other county) and seven pounds if taken among the Indians, with all reasonable charges paid by ISAAC WARD.
East Chester, March 7 1775. 79 82

To the gentlemen subscribers of the association paper, lately circulating in Dutchess county.

WHEN I consider your transcendent worth as individuals, and your immense weight as a combined body; when I seriously reflect, that you are made up of at least thirty six Freeholders and one hundred and twenty seven other persons, who, if they have no lands, nor a great portion of property at present, may probably in time possess a very considerable portion of both; —when I think of all this, permit me, gentlemen to confess my palpitations and tremors at my first addressing you—nothing short of the most ardent affection for the principles you have espoused, could have induced me to approach you. And let an humble friend to order and decency, conjure you, never to relax in the glorious struggle you are engaged in.

What if nine tenths of Dutchess county are continually opposing and reproaching of you? what if three millions of Freemen, scattered over the vast Continent of America, are execrating your tenets and proceedings? Your cause is good and venerable; it is almost as ancient as creation. It had its advocates in the court of Nimrod. Cambyses, and Nero, thought just as you do. And, descending to later times, have not our great grandfathers seen one British King bleed, and another abdicate his Throne, for the sake of principles exactly similar to yours?

Let these scraps of history, and these glorious examples, stimulate you to go on as you have begun.—Use all your influence and rhetoric to make the people believe, that liberty and property are but mere names, and nothing real: That passive obedience is the doctrine of old times, permanent, durable, and desirable. Be indefatigable in your exertions, gentlemen. Despise the disdain and ridicule of millions: Their taunts and sneers will be more than counterbalanced by the affection and love of a few, who know how to distinguish merit like yours, and what is more than all, can reward it too. X.

MR. HOLT,

Please to insert the following in your next.

THE Committee of Observation for the Township of Woodbridge, taking into consideration, the conduct of the inhabitants of Staten-Island, in neglecting, or refusing to adopt the association of the General Congress; and as a number of said inhabitants daringly attempted by force, to prevent a ship's returning to Europe, which arrived with goods, after the first day of February, by which they have justly incurred the displeasure of all the friends of liberty;—We think it a duty incumbent on us, to publish our dislike of such hostile measures,—and suspend all trade, dealings, and intercourse with them, till they join the association aforesaid:—Therefore, resolved unanimously, that we will from this day, break off, and suspend all trade, dealings, and intercourse with them;—and will use every lawful means in our power, to prevent the inhabitants of said Island getting any timber, plank, iron, &c. from this town: But as we are unwilling to involve the innocent with the guilty, we except, under particular restrictions, such of them as have openly approved of the association, and are willing to adopt it.—And we do earnestly recommend to all the inhabitants of this Township, a strict observance of this suspension, by having no dealings, or intercourse with the inhabitants of said Island, till they retract their late conduct, and join in the measures recommended by the Congress;—and Messrs. Matthias Baker, Samuel Force, William Smith, John Noe, William Cutter, John Conway, John Ross, and Jeremiah Manning, are appointed inspectors of the several public landings, to see that this resolve is strictly adhered to.

Signed by order of the Committee.

JOHN CONWAY, Clerk.

Woodbridge, 20th Feb. 1775.

NEW-YORK, March 9.

Extract of a Letter from Philadelphia, dated 27th February.

I hope you will not be misled by the Puffs of Mr. Rivington's Philadelphia Correspondent, respecting the State of public Virtue in our Province. Our Assembly begin to vie with the Assemblies of Virginia and Massachusetts Bay. A Motion was made, a few Days ago, in the House, to petition the Throne, but it was strenuously opposed, as a Measure, that detracted from the Union and Dignity of the Colonies. Mr. Dickinson acquired fresh Laurels on this Debate. His Zeal and Firmness in the Cause of Liberty, cannot be too much commended. Our new Speaker, Mr. Biddle, has taken a decisive part in the present Controversy, and has exerted the whole of his Abilities and Influence, in supporting the Measures of the Congress. The Motion for petitioning the King, was put off till next Week, when there is no Doubt but it will be rejected by a great majority of the House. Our Counties (Bucks excepted) are as ONE Man, and are ready to do or suffer any Thing, in Support of American Freedom. Our City Committee have subdued all opposition to their Measures; in a Word we have all the Wealth, Virtue, and Understanding in the Province, on the Side of Liberty. I must here except that Share of them which belong to the Friends——But even this Body of People are divided, many of them, perhaps most of them disapprove of the Testimony which was published against the Proceedings of the Congress; it was agreed upon and written at a meeting of only 26 of that Society. There are but 8 or 10 avowed Tories in our City, and those consist chiefly of young Lads who have just emerged from behind the Counter; and like the Town of Geneva, owe their Security entirely to their Weakness. It would give them that Kind of Consequence they aim at, only to mention their Names. The most contemptible of them all, is universally suspected of being Rivington's lying Correspondent,

You may publish the whole of the above Account of our Assembly, Province &c. in Mr. Holt's Paper, it may serve as an Antidote against some of the Falsehoods in the Gazetteer.

Morris-Town, 4th March, 1775.

Last Wednesday at three o'Clock, P. M. departed this Life, Phœbe, the Wife of James M'Bride, who left her distressed and afflicted Husband with three small helpless Children to bewail her loss.—She is much lamented by her Relations, Neighbours, and all who had the pleasure of being acquainted with her virtuous Life and Conversation.

Whereas sundry conjectures and misrepresentations, are in the minds of people, in regard to the terrible accident by fire, which happened on Tuesday last by the destruction of the Hospital; it is thought proper to set that doleful affair in its true light, for which reason, the following affidavits are published; and as a report prevails, that there were a great many shavings in the room where it first happened, the contrary is proved by the following affidavits.

City and County of New York.

I Richard Smith, and Joseph Forbes, of the said city, house carpenters, severally make oath and say, and first the deponent Richard Smith, for himself, saith that on Tuesday morning last, being the 28th of February, he was working in company with the said Joseph Forbes, in the south west ward, on the principal floor of the New-York Hospital, that upon the accustomed alarm being given at 12 o'clock, by the knocking of a hammer for the workmen to go to dinner, the deponent scraped up the sand and ashes lying about the hearth of the chimney, where he had some hours before lighted a fire with some shavings and light wood, for the purpose of heating the glue pot, which he had an absolute occasion for, at the work he had been about; and altho' there was little or no appearance of fire being then in the chimney, or on the hearth, the deponent after so scraping up the sand and ashes, swept away the few shavings about the hearth, and then sprinkled so much water thereon, as to put the deponent out of all fear of any damage while he went to his dinner, which being done, he went out of the Hospital front door, with the said Joseph Forbes, and he the deponent lockt after them, thinking the workmen were all gone; and further the deponent saith, that in the room where he had been at work, he does not believe that with the shavings and dirt together, there was so much therein, as would fill a two bushel basket, had they been all swept up together; and the deponent Joseph Forbes, for himself saith, that he was at work in the morning of Tuesday last, in the same apartment in the Hospital, with the deponent Richard Smith, whom he saw clear up the hearth of the chimney where the glue pot had been heated, and saw the precaution used by the said Smith, by sprinkling the same with water; and the deponent did not see any fire upon the hearth that could be noticed, for upwards of two hours before he went away with the said Smith to dinner, that before they went out of the door of the Hospital, Smith asked the deponent, if he thought the people were all out of the building, to which the deponent replied, he did, and then they went out, Smith locking the door after them, and proceeded to their dinner, and further the deponent saith not.

GEO. BREWERTON.

City and County of New York.

I Alexander Bates, of the said city, mason, maketh oath, that on Tuesday last at noon, he the deponent, with two of his boys and two carpenters, coming out of the cellar of the new Hospital, erecting in the said city, in order to go out at the main door to dinner, but on coming to the door, found it lockt, and all the rest of the people gone who had been working above; whereupon one of the carpenters pryed the style of the door case, on the side the lock was, till there was room for the bolt of the lock to pass clear, and thereby the door was opened, out of which the deponent with the other persons, went their way leaving the door unlockt, and further the deponent saith not.

Alexander Bates.

Sworn this 3d day of March, 1775, before me, } GEO. BREWERTON,

City and County of New York.

DAVID Fairly, of the said City, Carman, maketh oath, that on Friday the third of March, the deponent heard Mary Watson say, that on Tuesday last, a little after twelve o'clock, she the said Mary Watson went to the Hospital to get a few chips, when coming to the door, found it only latcht, which she opened and went in, and likewise two little girls with her; she seeing no workmen there, went into the furthermost part of the hospital, and did not see the girls till she had got some chips, and was coming out, when she called the girls and they came out of a room, from that part where she supposes the fire began; and likewise drove them out, and came out herself, and latcht the door again, and says she was only there a few minutes, and saw no fire there at all;——the deponent further says, that he heard two little girls say, (one belonging to Mr. Webb, the other belonging to Mr. Trevillion) that they went into the Hospital, with Mary Watson; and that they went into a room, and going to the chimney, saw a little fire, which they laid on shavings, and blowed it till it burned, and then came out with Mary Watson, and went home, and further the deponent saith not. DAVID FAIRLY.

Sworn the 3d March, 1775, before me GEORGE BREWERTON.

On Friday Evening last a Number of Persons, who disapproved of the Proposal made by the committee for this City and County in their Advertisement published in our last, met at the House of the Widow De La Montagnie & after choosing Mr. John Thurman, Chairman, proposed attempting to get the Business intended for last Monday, (viz the Choice of Persons to meet the Deputies from the Counties, for the Purpose of choosing Delegates for the next Congress) postponed until the 20th of April; and published a Hand Bill, desiring those who were of their Sentiments, to meet them there on Monday the 6th Instant, at ten o'clock, and proceed from thence to the Exchange.——A Number of the Friends of constitutional Liberty, hearing of this Manœuvre, and apprehending a Scheme was on Foot to defeat the Design of sending Delegates to the Congress, met on the next Evening, and determined to support the Committee, of whose Virtue and Patriotism we have had ample Experience. At the Close of the Meeting, a Gentleman having informed the Company, that the Owners of the Ship Beulah, (some Time since arrived from London) had not performed their Promise of fencing her back, and that therefore the Committee's Boat had left her,—about 300 Citizens, unanimously determined to wait upon the Owners, to know why the Beulah had not sailed, and required the Captain's repairing immediately on board his Ship, then lying at the Watering Place, in order to her Departure with the first fair Wind.——This Service was effectually performed, and next Day the Vessel fell down to the Hook, from whence she put to Sea on Tuesday last.

Early on Monday Morning, Preparations were made for the Meeting at the Exchange: A Union Flag, with a red Field was hoisted, on the Liberty Pole, where, at 9 o'Clock, the Friends of Freedom assembled, and having got in proper Readiness, about 11 o'Clock, the Body began their March to the Exchange. They were attended by Music; and two Standard Bearers carried a large Union Flag, with a blue Field, on which were the following Inscriptions: On one Side, GEORGE III. REX AND THE LIBERTIES OF AMERICA. NO POPERY. On the other, THE UNION OF THE COLONIES, AND THE MEASURES OF THE CONGRESS. Some Time after they had arrived at the Exchange, came also the other Company who had met at the Widow De La Montagnie's, among whom were some Officers of the Army and Navy, several of his Majesty's Council, and those Members of the House of Representatives, who had refused taking into Consideration the Proceedings of the Congress, together with Officers of the Customs, and other Dependents on the Court, &c. Soon after the Parties met, some Confusion arose, but subsided without any bad Consequences ——The Chairman of the Committee then proceeded to explain the Design of the Meeting; after which he proposed the following Questions, viz.

First Question. Whether a certain Number of persons, shall be appointed and authorized, to meet such Deputies as the Counties may elect, and join with them for the sole purpose of appointing out of their Body on the 20th of April next, Delegates for the next Congress?

Second Question. Whether this Meeting will authorize the Committee to nominate eleven Deputies, for their Approbation? Both which were carried in the Affirmative. The Meeting, and the Majority which determined the Questions, are supposed to have been the most numerous and respectable ever known in this City on the Decision of any public Proposal. The Business of the Day being finished, the Friends of Freedom paraded thro' one of the principal Streets of the City to the Liberty-Pole, and there dispersed, in the most quiet and orderly Manner.

City of } PERSONALLY
NEW YORK, ss. } came and appeared before me, David Matthews, Esq; one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, for the City and County of New York, JOHN GRAHAM, Clerk to Robert and John Murray, of this City, Merchants, and being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, did depose and say: That he left this City on Sunday Morning last, in Company with the said John Murray, and proceeded with him on board the ship Beulah, then lying at the Watering Place;—that shortly after they arrived on board the said Ship, they weighed Anchor, and proceeded to Sandy Hook, where the Ship continued until about seven of the Clock this Morning, at which time they weighed Anchor, and stood out to Sea.—That the said Deponent, and the said John Murray left the said Ship, and came up opposite to Staten Island, where the said John Murray landed, about two of the Clock this Afternoon, and was going (as the Deponent understood from the said John Murray) to Elizabeth Town, to settle some Business with Lord Stirling:—That the Deponent saw the said Ship pass the Light House, about eight of the Clock this Morning:—That neither the said John Murray, or the Deponent was on board the said Ship, after the Anchor was weighed:—That the Deponent did not hear any Conversation between the said John Murray and any other Person, relative to the taking any Goods out of the said Ship, nor does he believe that any Boat is employed for that Purpose:—That the Deponent's Business on Board was to copy Invoices and Letters; and further the Deponent saith not.

JOHN GRAHAM.

On SLEEP.

O SLEEP! What though of death thou art
To be an image said,
I wish thee still, with all my heart,
The partner of my bed.

Thy company, soft SLEEP, then give:
While in thy arms I lie,
How sweet! thus, without life, to live:
Thus, without death, to die!

WHEREAS the store of the subscribers, was broke open and robbed, in the night of Tuesday, the 22d. instant, of a sum of money, supposed upwards of Thirty Pounds; the robbery supposed to be committed by a man, who worked for Darby Doyle, on Staten Island, a year or two ago, and passes by the name of John Williams; He is a tall slim fellow, much marked with the small-pox, and has a down look; wore a brown surtout, a reddish coat and reddish waistcoat, a new pair of leather breeches, new shoes and black stockings, had a pair of Gold sleeve buttons, one tyed with thread, the link being broke. The money known to be lost, is one Five Pound Bill York currency, one ditto Three Pounds Pennsylvania, new emission, marked on the back G. S. one Half Johannes, one Four Dollar Bill, Maryland money, the remainder in Pennsylvania and New-Jersey bills, and some Silver; he wore a new hat made by John Dennis, lin'd with red, and had an old pair of greasy leather breeches and sundry other articles, tyed up in a bundle, and may have taken some goods, not yet missed. Whoever secures said robber, or any of his associates, so, that he, or they may be brought to justice, shall on conviction, receive Ten Pounds, Proclamation money, of New-Jersey, and all reasonable charges, from JOHNSTON and BARBERIE.

Perth Amboy, 27th February, 1775. 78 81

MARY DECAMP,

HAVING lately been advertised in the public news-papers, as having eloped from her husband, Morris Decamp, of Elizabeth-Town, whereby the public would naturally be led to conclude, that she had in some respect or other misbehaved to her said husband. Therefore, in vindication of her injured character, she thinks herself obliged to declare, that tho' in marrying him, she disobliged all her friends, and always behaved as a faithful and dutiful wife to him; yet she has experienced from him continual ill usage of the worst kind; that for a criminal attempt upon a young woman, he was obliged to leave the place, and she was reduced to the necessity of returning to her mother.—That when the affair was made up, and she was prevailed on, to live with him again, by his lewd commerce with other women, he contracted and designedly communicated to her, a loathsome disease, which greatly endangered her life, and from which she with great difficulty recovered.—Since which, not thinking herself safe with him, she has continued with her mother; and her husband has absconded, to avoid the payment of his debts. 78—81

WE hear from Perth Amboy, in New-Jersey, that a certain Thomas Carman, was, a few days ago, committed to the common goal of that City, on an action, for propagating a most false, scandalous, and improbable report, of a certain Gentleman in high office, in that province: Which report, the said Carman confessed, upon his apprehension, that he knew to be false, when he first published it.—A free Mulatto fellow, named Nathaniel Chase, is also committed to the goal of Somerset County, in the said Province, for being concerned with the said Carman, in the invention of the same wicked, absurd, and ridiculous story. 78 81

TWO DOLLARS Reward,

Will be paid for bringing home

A RUN AWAY apprentice lad, named JAMES WINTERBOTTOM, who is about 16 years of age, 5 feet high, thin small face, pale complection, and reddish hair; was born in Liverpool, speaks good English, but stutters much in his speech, and is by trade a Chimney Sweeper. He had on when he went away, a light coloured cloth coat, with polished steel buttons, a red plush waistcoat, and new deer skin breeches. Whoever takes up and returns the said runaway, or gives notice of any person who takes him away, harbours, conceals, or entertains him, so that the subscriber gets him again, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges: and any person concerned in carrying him away, or keeping him from his master, may depend upon a legal prosecution, by

74 81 HERMAN ZEDTWITZ

RUN AWAY from the subscriber on the 26th of February last, an Irish servant boy, named Thomas Folton, about 16 years of age, has a long face and nose, and a down look: came from the county of Tyrone, with Captain Cheevers; had on a half worn hat, a wilton coat, a broad cloth jacket, without sleeves, a pair of breeches of the same, a white shirt, a light pair of knit woolen stockings, a pair of single soal shoes, and plated buckles. It is suspected that he was deluded away by one of Mr. Zedwitz's sweepers, who ran away at the same time, and perhaps they are gone towards Philadelphia, as he several times said that he had a brother in Pennsylvania. Whoever takes up the said runaway, shall have Five Dollars reward, and all reasonable charges, paid by JOHN WETZEL, Baker, in Bayard Street. 78 81

P. S. Since inserting the foregoing, intelligence has been received, that the above runaways went off in a boat belonging to Mr. Bunker, which they stole from the Exchange dock.

STERLING IRON WORKS,
TO BE LEASED;

FROM the first Day of April next, Three Fourths of the STERLING FURNACE with the Improvements thereon, situated in Bergen County, New-Jersey, now in the Possession of Peter Townsend. Also the Whole of the large Sterling Forge, within three Miles of the Furnace, now in the Possession of Abel Noble, at which Place the famous Anchor Works have been carried on for many Years past;—as those Iron Works are well known to exceed any on the Continent, both for their Improvements, and every other Advantage, as well as the superior Quality of the Iron, renders it unnecessary to enter into a particular Description of them. For Terms, and further Particulars, apply to the Subscribers in New-York.

JOHN WILLIAM SMITH, and SAMUEL BURLING.

N. B. Whoever is inclinable to Lease the abovementioned Works, may probably have an Opportunity of purchasing or leasing the remaining Part of the Furnace, of the present Tenant. 76 80

BY VIRTUE of a power contained in a certain Indenture of Mortgage, made and executed in due form of law, by John Hudson, to me the Subscriber, bearing date the second day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and sixty nine, PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that there will be exposed to sale at public Vendue, on the premises, on Tuesday the 29th day of August next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, agreeable to the directions of an act of the legislature of the colony of New-York, entitled, "an act for the more effectual registry of mortgages, and for securing the Purchasers of mortgaged estates," passed the 19th of March, 1774, All that certain piece or parcel of Land, Messuage, or Tenement, situate, lying, and being in the town of Goshen, in Orange county, and province of New-York, being part of Lot No. 6. in the original division of said town, and is bounded as follows, (that is to say) beginning at a stake with stones about it, standing on the north west side of the high way leading through said town, and runs thence south, forty three degrees, and forty-five minutes, west, thirty feet, to a stake with stones about it, thence north forty six degrees and fifteen minutes, west one hundred feet, to a stake with stones about it, thence north, forty-three degrees and forty five minutes, east, thirty feet, to a stake with stones about it, thence south, forty six degrees and fifteen minutes, east, one hundred feet, to the place where it first began; containing three thousand square feet of land, whereon is a framed dwelling house with other improvements, all which will be sold at the time and place aforesaid, unless the principal money, together with the interest due thereon, and secured by the said mortgage, be paid and discharged before that time.

WILLIAM HUDSON.

Blooming-Grove, February, 23, 1775. } 78——1703

WHEREAS Stephen Van Rensselaer, late Lord and proprietor of the Manor of Rensselaerwyck, in the county of Albany, deceased, did, in his life-time lay out and set a part, a certain tract of twelve thousand acres of land, situated on the east side of Hudson's river, in the south east corner of the said Manor, known by the name of Stephen-Town, being limited and bounded as follows; beginning at a black birch tree standing in the south boundary line of the said Manor, sixteen miles east by the Needle, from the south end of Beeren-Island, in Hudson's river; and runs thence east by the Needle four hundred chains, to a bass wood tree marked; thence north twenty-one degrees, east three hundred and thirty-two chains; thence west by the Needle, three hundred and eighty-one chains, thence south twenty-three degrees and thirty minutes west, three hundred and thirty-nine chains, to the black birch tree first mentioned.

AND WHEREAS five thousand acres, part of the said twelve thousand acres of land, has been laid out and surveyed, into fifty lots of one hundred acres each, (being numbered from one to fifty,)

AND WHEREAS the said Stephen Van Rensselaer, did afterwards, in his life-time, (in and by several indentures, of lease and release, the lease bearing date the day before, and the releases the twenty-fourth day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and sixty five)—grant, bargain, sell, alien, release, and confirm unto James Gray, Samuel Brown, James Gray, jun. David Pixley, Benjamin Willard, Jabiel Woodbridge, Nathan Ball, Joseph Willard, Josiah Ball, Elijah Wilson, Phineas Whitney, Abel Rowe, Eli Pixley, Ebenezer Noble, Amos Beard, Jonathan Walker, Daniel Hubbard, David Noble, William Wright, Samuel Wilson, David Bagg, and David Pixley, jun. and to each of them severally and to their several heirs and assigns, for ever, each two of the said fifty lots, of one hundred acres. As also two fiftieth parts of the undivided lands in the said tract of twelve thousand acres, to be divided into fifty equal parts, of which said last mentioned undivided lands, We the subscribers are part owners: Now therefore, by virtue of a certain act of the Lieutenant Governor, the Council, and General Assembly of the colony of New-York, passed the eighth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-two, entitled, "An Act for the more effectual collecting of his Majesty's quit rents in the colony of New-York, and for partition of lands in order thereto": And also by virtue of another act of the Governor, Council, and General Assembly of the said colony, entitled, "An Act to continue an act, entitled, an act for the more effectual collecting of his Majesty's quit-rents in the colony of New-York, and for partition of lands in order thereto;" and also to continue one other act, entitled, "An Act to explain part of an act, entitled an act for the more effectual collecting of his Majesty's quit-rents in the colony of New-York, and for partition of lands in order thereto," passed the thirty-first day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and sixty eight, We do hereby give notice, that Daniel Hull, Daniel Denniston, and Samuel Shearman, all of Little Hoosick, in the said Manor, not interested in the said lands, are appointed Commissioners to make partition of the said undivided land, that they the said Commissioners will meet on Wednesday the twelfth day of April next, at the house of Othniel Gardner, innkeeper, at Little Hoosick aforesaid; and all persons interested therein are hereby required to attend then and there for that purpose, either by themselves, or their attornies. Given under our hands, the ninth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

AN ACADEMY,

Was eſtabliſhed the 1ſt May to be opened at Kingſton, by the truſtees of the town, on the 1ſt of May inſtant; but by a diſappointment in obtaining a maſter, it operated only in the Engliſh department, and has already thirty ſcholars, who are taught reading, writing, arithmetic, and particularly ſurveying, with great accuracy. The truſtees are now happy in being able to notify to the public, that they are ſo far removed from any college, as to a college education for ſuch as do not chooſe, or cannot go to a more public ſeminary. No place already engaged for that department.

The terms are the ſame as mentioned in their former advertiſement, with reſpect to the Engliſh, Latin and Greek languages, to prepare youths for any college in America, but will introduce geography, natural philoſophy, and ſuch branches of the mathematics as may be neceſſary to a liberal education.

The morals of the ſcholars; they are under the moſt watchful inſpection, and ſcrupulous attention paid to their behaviour, as any miſdemeanor, or criminality deſerves the ſevereſt diſcipline, which they mean to inflict as ſeldom as poſſible, and endeavour to raiſe to as high reputation as poſſible, while the character of the inſtitution will prove an encouragement to the truſtees to keep it up.

Any inquiries relating to this academy may be made by addreſſing to Dirck Wynkoop, and Chriſtopher Tappen, Eſqrs. or to the rector at Kingſton. 64

TWO Thouſand Pounds is wanted on intereſt in Tower. The beſt perſonal ſecurity will be given, and the intereſt, it may be depended on, will always be paid punctually to the Day.—Whoever this may ſuit, by addreſſing a Line to A. B. and leaving it with the Printer, will be treated with. 76 79

Francis Lewis, & Son,

Have just imported,

IN the Aurora, from London, a large Assortment of GOODS, suitable for the Season, which they are now opening, at their Store, near the Fly-Market. 59—

TO Cover at James Tredwell's in Flanders, county of Morris, and province of New-Jersey, at 30*s.* proc. the season,—Goliah, a most elegant English horse; he was bred in England, and got by old Sterling, one of the fleetest and most beautiful horses in the kingdom. Goliah is between 16 and 17 hands high, in every respect well formed, and possesses in a remarkable degree, more size and strength, as well as more beauty, spirit and figure, than any stallion in the country. His foals, like himself, are handsome, strong, and lively; and few horses have been imported into America, so well calculated to produce a hardy and useful breed.

Good pasture for mares and particular attendance. 77

TO Cover, at MORRISANIA, at three guineas a mare, and a dollar the groom, the beautiful horse, call'd

BAY RICHMOND.

His pedigree is as follows:

Richmond, Yorkshire, Sept. 24, 1774.

"I certify, that the bay colt which Mr. John Hutchinson purchased of Sir Lawrence Dundas, Bart. was bred by me, and was got by Sabrina Blank, out of my mare Dido, that won ten Fifty Pound prizes, or upwards, and which colt was three years old at May day last.

THOMAS CORNFORTH."

Aldby, Yorkshire, Sept. 20, 1774.

"I do hereby certify, that the bay mare Dido, the property of Thomas Cornforth, Esq; was bred by me, and was own sister to my mare, called Virgin, and my colt Miracle, being got by Changeling (own brother to Mr. Fenwick's Match'em) the Dam of Virgin, Miracle and Dido, was also the Dam of Lord Bolingbroke's Conundrum (afterwards Mr. Pigot's) and Ranthos, Mr. Cornforth's Enigma, my Mare's Riddle, Miss Time, Mr. Foley's Pumpkin, and my Filley called Maiden, all which were got by Match'em: Their dam was got by Squirt, sire of Mask and Syphon, their grandam by Mogul, (own brother to Babram) great grandam by Say Bolton, great great grandam by Mr. Pullin's Chesnut Arabian, (which mare was the grandam of the Bolton Sterling) great great great grandam by Rockwood, great great great great grandam by Butler."

Witness my hand, JOHN PRATT.

This horse was lately imported from Yorkshire: He is near fifteen hands high, of great strength and bone, rising four years old, and performs all actions with vast ease and gracefulness, and in figure equals the finest horse ever imported to this province.

Good grass for mares, and the greatest care taken of them.

TO Cover also, at the same place, at two guineas a mare, and a dollar the servant, the famous horse

GOLDEN FARMER,

He is a strong beautiful bay, well made, full fifteen hands and an inch high, three years old, and free from all blemishes; he was got by the noted horse bold Hercules, who is remarkable for getting famous hunters; he was got by a son of Snake, his dam by his grace the Duke of Bolton's Little John, and Little John by Old Partner, out of a bay Bolton mare. Golden Farmer's dam is a stout grand hunting mare, is allowed, by good judges, to be one of the best brood mares in Yorkshire and her breed has proved it there, in three capital stallions out of her, one of which has been proved, & one thousand guineas have been frequently refused for him. Golden Farmer is the property, and was bred by Mr. John Hutchinson. This is a true pedigree, as witness our hands.

Capt. JOHN HUTCHINSON,
JAMES SADLER.

AND to Cover at TROY, in the county of Morris, East New-Jersey, the last famous bay stallion, imported by Mr. Hutchinson, called

BOLD FORRESTER,

At Four Pounds Ten Shillings, for the season.

Bold Forrester is now rising six years old, is full fifteen hands high, and free from all blemishes; his was got by Bold Tom, his dam by Croft's Forrester, and is thought by good judges, to be the best horse that ever was brought to that province, as he has strength and action superior to any horse that was ever shewn on the continent; he is very successful in getting colts, which are like to prove good hunters or excellent coach horses, and are in general the best stock I ever knew. As witness my hand,

JOHN HUTCHINSON.

Good grass for mares, on moderate terms, and proper care. The money to be paid when the mares are covered, or before taken away.—Troy is only seven miles distant from Morris Town, fifteen from Springfield, and twenty-one from Elisabeth-Town. 77 8*o*

NOTICE is hereby given, to the Creditors of John Toft, an insolvent Debtor, confined in the Gaol of the free Borough of Elizabeth, County of Essex, and Province of New-Jersey; that they appear before the Judges of the said Borough, on the seventh Day of March next, to shew Cause, if any they have, why an Assignment of the said Debtor's Estate should not be made, and he discharged from Confinement, agreeable to a late Act of the General Assembly. 77 79

Elizabeth Town, Feb. 13, 1775.

Francis Lewis, & Son,

Have just imported,

IN the Aurora, from London, a large Assortment of GOODS, suitable for the Season, which they are now opening, at their Store, near the Fly-Market. 59—

TO Cover at James Tredwell's in Flanders, county of Morris, and province of New-Jersey, at 30*s.* proc. the season.—Goliah, a most elegant English horse; he was bred in England, and got by old Sterling, one of the fleetest and most beautiful horses in the kingdom. Goliah is between 16 and 17 hands high, in every respect well formed, and possesses in a remarkable degree, more size and strength, as well as more beauty, spirit and figure, than any stallion in the country. His foals, like himself, are handsome, strong, and lively; and few horses have been imported into America, so well calculated to produce a hardy and useful breed.

Good pasture for mares and particular attendance. 77

TO Cover, at MORRISANIA, at three guineas a mare, and a dollar the groom, the beautiful horse, call'd

BAY RICHMOND.

His pedigree is as follows:

Richmond, Yorkshire, Sept. 20, 1774.

"I certify, that the bay colt which Mr. John Hutchinson purchased of Sir Lawrence Dundas, Bart. was bred by me, and was got by Sabrina Blank, out of my mare Dido, that won ten Fifty Pound prizes, or upwards, and which colt was three years old at May day last.

THOMAS CORNFORTH."

Aldby, Yorkshire, Sept. 20, 1774.

"I do hereby certify, that the bay mare Dido, the property of Thomas Cornforth, Esq; was bred by me, and was own sister to my mare, called Virgin, and my colt Miracle, being got by Changeling (own brother to Mr. Fenwick's Match'em) the Dam of Virgin, Miracle and Dido, was also the Dam of Lord Bolingbrooke's Conundrum (afterwards Mr. Pigot's) and Ranthos, Mr. Cornforth's Enigma, my Mare's Riddle, Miss Time, Mr. Foley's Pumpkin, and my Filley called Maiden, all which were got by Match'em: Their dam was got by Squirt, sire of Mask and Syphon, their grandam by Mogul, (own brother to Babram) great grandam by Say Bolton, great great grandam by Mr. Pullin's Chesnut Arabian, (which mare was the grandam of the Bolton Sterling) great great great grandam by Rockwood, great great great great grandam by Butler."

Witness my hand, JOHN PRATT.

This horse was lately imported from Yorkshire: He is near fifteen hands high, of great strength and bone, rising four years old, and performs all actions with vast ease and gracefulness, and in figure equals the finest horse ever imported to this province.

Good grass for mares, and the greatest care taken of them.

TO Cover also, at the same place, at two guineas a mare, and a dollar the servant, the famous horse

GOLDEN FARMER,

He is a strong beautiful bay, well made, full fifteen hands and an inch high, three years old, and free from all blemishes; he was got by the noted horse bold Hercules, who is remarkable for getting famous hunters; he was got by a son of Snake, his dam by his grace the Duke of Bolton's Little John, and Little John by Old Partner, out of a bay Bolton mare. Golden Farmer's dam is a stout grand hunting mare, is allowed, by good judges, to be one of the best brood mares in Yorkshire and her breed has proved it there, in three capital stallions out of her, one of which has been proved, & one thousand guineas have been frequently refused for him. Golden Farmer is the property, and was bred by Mr. John Hutchinson. This is a true pedigree, as witness our hands.

Capt. JOHN HUTCHINSON,
JAMES SADLER.

AND to Cover at TROY, in the county of Morris, East New-Jersey, the last famous bay stallion, imported by Mr. Hutchinson, called

BOLD FORRESTER,

At Four Pounds Ten Shillings, for the season.

Bold Forrester is now rising six years old, is full fifteen hands high, and free from all blemishes; his was got by Bold Tom, his dam by Croft's Forrester, and is thought by good judges, to be the best horse that ever was brought to that province, as he has strength and action superior to any horse that was ever shewn on the continent; he is very successful in getting colts, which are like to prove good hunters or excellent coach horses, and are in general the best stock I ever knew. As witness my hand,

JOHN HUTCHINSON.

Good grass for mares, on moderate terms, and proper care. The money to be paid when the mares are covered, or before taken away.—Troy is only seven miles distant from Morris Town, fifteen from Springfield, and twenty-one from Elizabeth-Town. 77 80
